DigitalBridge Receives All Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete Acquisition by SoftBank Group Corp.

September 22, 2026

BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 22, 2026-- DigitalBridge Group, Inc. (NYSE: DBRG) ("DigitalBridge" or the "Company") today announced that all regulatory approvals required to complete the previously announced acquisition of DigitalBridge by SoftBank Group Corp. ("SoftBank Group") have been received, including approval by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), clearance from the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), and all other required antitrust and domestic and foreign investment approvals.

With the receipt of these approvals, all conditions to the closing of the transaction have now been satisfied (other than those to be satisfied on the closing date). In accordance with the merger agreement, the transaction is expected to close within five business days (as defined in the merger agreement).

Under the terms of the merger agreement, DigitalBridge stockholders will be entitled to receive $16.00 per share in cash upon the closing of the transaction. Following completion of the transaction, DigitalBridge's common stock will cease trading and will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange. As previously announced, in connection with the closing, the Company expects to provide holders of its Series H, Series I, and Series J preferred stock, the change of control notice and conversion election opportunity required by the terms of each series. Preferred shares for which holders do not exercise their change of control rights are expected to remain outstanding following the closing in accordance with their existing terms, as previously disclosed in the Company's definitive proxy statement.
